ZOOM TIPS & ETIQUETTE

1. Take notes to share with your chapter.
2. Be engaged and ready to learn.
3. Follow Zoom etiquette and be respectful to all presenters and attendees

Try This!

1. Keep your mic muted unless your presenter asks for engagement.
2. Keep your camera on to show you are present and participating.
3. Use Zoom in speaker mode unless instructed to use gallery mode for interaction.
4. Use the chat to ask questions.
5. Use reactions like the thumbs up and clapping hands to show your presenter you are listing and engaged.
Change your screen name to include your region
Example: Clay M - R4
VIRTUAL SCAVENGER HUNT

In 3 minutes or less go find all the items on the list and bring them back to your work space.

First Person to gather all the items and type their list in the chat wins!

Ready... Set... Go!

- Computer or Smart Device
- Conference Guide
- Blue or Black Pen
- Lined Paper
- Piece of Candy or Fruit
HOW THIS WILL WORK

In a few minutes, we will move to our first round of breakout rooms.

- Links to the rooms can be found in your Conference Guide.
  - First, you will need to leave this General Session room.
  - Next, you will click on the link for the breakout room that corresponds to your specific status (student, New Advisor, or Returning Advisor).
  - Return to the General Session link if you need assistance or when your breakout session ends.
